

I am an Indiana resident and I have greatly enjoyed not being bothered by dinner time telephone salespeople. I am a hardworking taxpaying individual and believe it is my right to have quiet evenings at home without having to unplug the phone. Leave the act the way it is now.